Summer Reading Logs

Register for the Summer Reading Program!

<https://colchestervt.gov/3247/Summer-Reading-2020>

Remember, after you sign up, you'll still need to stop by the library to pick up your reading log during our Curbside pick-up days.

<https://www.colchestervt.gov/3244/Curbside>

Once you have registered, there will be a reading packet with your name on it . You can fill in your reading log and/or the Summer Reading Bingo sheet.

Every time you complete a line in Bingo or send us (by e-mail or Facebook) your reading progress, you will receive mini-prizes and be entered into the raffle to win a gift certificate from Phoenix Books in Essex.

IMAGINE YOUR STORY

Weekly Craft Bags

We will have craft bags available during Curbside, starting on Saturday, June 27 with a Three Little Pigs activity. E-mail us or sign up online to ensure there is a bag for you!

Imagine the Challenges

Throughout the summer, there will be challenges to complete. Send us as a photo of your work by e-mail or Facebook and to win mini-prizes and be entered into the prize raffles. These will be posted on Facebook and on the Summer Reading webpage

VIRTUAL PERFORMERS

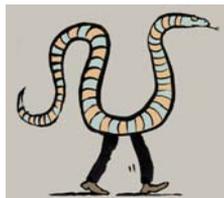

We are not able to have in-person programs this summer, but we will still offer virtual performers for your entertainment.

Live on our Youth Facebook page
Wednesday, July 1 at 10:00am
<https://www.facebook.com/burnhamlibyouth/>

Vermont's lone admitted pirate entertainer, bringing his song bag of pirate-related music, his costume, Guitar, and ebullient personality live from his pirate hideout near Smugglers' Notch.

VINS Presents
"Animals in Myth and Legend"
Live performance via Zoom
Friday July 31st at 2:00pm

How did Snake lose her legs? Why does Owl only fly at night? How did Turtle fly south for the winter? Meet these animals and hear their stories while we learn about the adaptations they have that help them survive. We'll explore different tales that help to understand the world of wildlife around us. Once registering you will be sent a Zoom link to login.

Magic Mr. Nick Virtual Show
Magic, Illusion, Comedy and Confusion with Magic Mr. Nick!
A show full of magic and illusions that simply can't be done at an in-person show. The link to this show will be shared in July on our Facebook page and website. Stay tuned!

Storytimes and More

Our storytimes this summer will be virtual,
(mostly) live on our Facebook page
<https://www.facebook.com/burnhamlibyouth/>

As this year's theme is "Imagine Your Story", we will share all kinds of stories from around the world: fairy tales, folk tales, myths, dragons, princes and princesses, and more- oh my!

Tuesday Storytime

Every Tuesday at 10:30am
June 30 - August 11
Stories, songs, rhymes for toddlers and preschoolers.

Baby Storytime

Every Friday at 10:30am
June 26 - August 14
Rhymes, songs, stories, scarves and BUBBLES!

Pajama Storytime

Last Monday of the month at 6:30pm
June 29, July 27 & August 31
Put on your PJs, grab your favorite snuggly friend and settle in for relaxing stories before bed.

Read-a-loud for grades 3 and up

Every Monday & Thursday at 3pm, we will read a nominee from Vermont's Middle Grade Book Award list.

On Monday, June 29 at 3pm, we will begin our first selection for the summer:
The Dark Lord Clementine by Sarah Jean Horowitz. Drop by our Facebook page to hear if Clementine can break the curse!
